DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hotea (5,645,458).

In regard to claim 1, Hotea discloses an electrical contact terminal obtained by cutting and folding a plate of electrically conductive metal comprising: a rear part (24) permitting connection with an electric wire and a front part (4) comprising, on the one hand, a cage (6) provided with a bottom (18), a top part (20) and two sides (14, 16) and, on the other hand, at least one first blade, forming contact blade (8, 10) with a complementary contact terminal, created in the extension of one of the sides (14, 16) and folded towards the inside of the cage (6), characterized in that each side (14, 16) comprises a second blade (40) forming a reinforcing blade, folded towards a free end (22) of the contact blade (8, 10) and supported on the free end (22) of this contact blade (8, 10).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hotea in view of Koide (6,468,116).

Hotea does not disclose that contact blade (8, 10) comprises at least one formed part created in a folding zone of the contact blade (8, 10).

Koide discloses that contact crimping piece (12) comprises at least one formed part 15A created in a folding zone of the contact crimping piece (12) for facilitating the bending of the leading edge (12A) (column 3, lines 40-43). Further, Koide discloses that the formed part (15A) is made on the contact crimping piece (12) blade before folding of the leading edge (12A).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Hotea's invention by constructing the folding zone as taught by Koide in order to facilitate the assembling process of the contact terminal.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: In regard to claim 5, the prior art fails to provide, teach or suggest at least one lateral tab piece created on at least one of the blades and received in at least one slot created in the top part and/or the bottom of the cage; and in combination with all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. In regard to claim 8, the prior art fails to provide, teach or suggest the bottom and the top part comprise an overhanging front part, facing a U-shaped section comprising the folding zone of the contact blade; and in combination with all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
